BARRISTERS/SOLICITORS

TAX

Taxes impact every aspect of a business. Practical and creative solutions to tax questions depend on an in-depth knowledge of tax law as well as an understanding of how a business operates.

Our tax lawyers offer an unbeatable combination of tax knowledge and business expertise. Because we understand your business, we can provide you with a tax strategy and structure that works for you. Our lawyers practice in a sophisticated environment where they are able to draw on their many years of experience in order to respond to your needs.

Clients turn to us for all of their business and personal tax needs. These include:

- Business tax planning - Our expertise covers all areas of tax law, including corporate, and personal and international tax
- Tax compliance and dispute resolution - Our tax lawyers and litigators represent clients throughout all stages of the audit, appeals and court process
- Commodity tax - We advise and litigate matters concerning goods and services tax (GST), retail sales tax (PST) and land transfer tax (LTT)
- International tax planning - We advise individuals and companies expanding into or moving outside of Canada
- Charities and not-for-profits - We advise our clients on planned giving including the establishment of charitable organizations, public foundations and private foundations
